Bankline

Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions (“Terms”) apply to the Bankline internet banking service (“Bankline”) provided by National Westminster Bank Plc, trading as Ulster Bank (the “Bank”), registered in England and Wales (Registered Number 929027). They form part of the Bankline Agreement made between the Customer and the Bank by the Customer signing the application form which incorporates these Terms. The Bankline Agreement (“Agreement”) refers to the Bankline Website through which the service is accessed (“Website”). Bankline is only available to Customers who hold a Business Current Account with the Bank. These Terms are supplemental to the Business Banking Terms and Conditions and application form (“Account Agreement”) provided by the Bank to the Customer and these Terms should be read together with the Account Agreement.

Some of the provisions in these Terms apply only if the Customer is a “Protected Customer”. A Protected Customer for these purposes is a consumer, a Micro-enterprise or, a charity whose annual income is less than £1million. A “Micro-enterprise” means, at the time at which the Agreement is entered into, a business or group of businesses of which it forms part, and which employs fewer than 10 persons and whose annual turnover and/or balance sheet total does not exceed £2 million (or sterling equivalent). Valid third party providers (“Third Party Providers”) are “Account Information Service Providers” and “Payment Initiation Service Providers” who are registered or authorised in the UK or EEA or who are otherwise lawfully carrying on business.

1. Use of Bankline

- 1.1. Bankline enables the Customer to access and give instructions (“Instructions”) regarding the Customer’s Accounts and any third party’s Accounts (each “Accounts”), included in Bankline. Bankline also enables the Customer to access and give account management instructions regarding any business or commercial card accounts held with the bank.
- 1.2. The Bank recommends the Customer appoints two or more administrators (“Administrators”) to manage Bankline.
- 1.3. The Customer gives Administrators full power to administer and operate Bankline for the Customer. In the case of Dual Administration, two Administrators must act together. Administrators are responsible for:
 - 1.3.1. Appointing other Administrators.
 - 1.3.2. Authorising, appointing, removing and supervising other individuals who the Administrators have registered to use Bankline (“Users”) to access and use Bankline for the Customer, including adding additional accounts and products, closing Sterling accounts and managing them online. Each Administrator will also be a User.
 - 1.3.3. Allocating the password controls and the levels of authority and access of each User (“Privileges”).
- 1.4. The Privileges and password controls are in place of any other bank account mandate or authority held by the Bank for the operation of the Accounts.
- 1.5. The Bank will send to the Administrators any security devices (“Security Devices”) including Smartcards and readers and information relating to Users and Bankline. The Bank will send any PINs and passwords direct to the Users.
- 1.6. The Customer, Administrators and authorised Users can also give instructions through Third Party Providers such as account aggregators. The Customer, Administrators and authorised Users should take care to select valid Third Party Providers which they trust. The Customer acknowledges that any Administrator or authorised User can give instructions through valid Third Party Providers.
- 1.7. Administrators and authorised Users can also give instructions through valid Third Party Providers on behalf of other Bank customers (the “Other Customer”) who have authorised the Customer under a separate mandate to the Bank, to enable the Customer to operate that Other Customer’s account via Bankline.
- 1.8. The Bank may suspend or withdraw all or any part of Bankline to carry out maintenance work.
- 1.9. The Bank may suspend the Customer’s use of Bankline for security reasons, or where the Bank suspects unauthorised or fraudulent use of Bankline. Unless there is a security or other legal reason not to, the Bank will notify the Customer either before it takes any action, or immediately after, and give the reasons for doing so.
- 1.10. The Bank does not guarantee the availability of Bankline and accepts no liability arising from non-availability. Where possible, the Bank will notify the Customer in advance of any suspension or withdrawal of Bankline.
- 1.11. The Bank may suspend or cancel an Administrator’s or User’s use of Bankline. Unless there is a legal or security reason not to, the Bank will inform the Customer in advance and give the Bank’s reasons for doing so. In other cases, the Bank will notify the Customer immediately after.
- 1.12. The Bank will give notice of the availability of Bankline, any changes to the Terms, or of other matters, on the Website via the “Bank Messages” facility.
- 1.13. These Terms are in addition to the terms applicable to the Accounts themselves.
- 1.14. Where the Customer holds National Westminster Bank (NatWest) Accounts, RBS International Limited (RBS International) Accounts or Isle of Man Bank Limited Accounts (IOMB), The Royal Bank of Scotland is acting as agent for NatWest or RBS International or IOMB in providing Bankline.

Authorised Users must not allow anyone else to use their Smartcard.

3. Instructions

- 3.1. Instructions given to the Bank through Bankline are treated as the Customer’s consent to make a payment and manage services. If the Customer wants to cancel a payment it will notify the Bank via the Website or as directed by the Website. Instructions received by the Bank for a same day payment may not be cancelled.
- 3.2. Receipt of Instructions by the Bank is not guaranteed by the use of Bankline.
- 3.3. The Bank may request additional authorisation or details for any Instruction.
- 3.4. The Bank will act on an Instruction during the hours of operation on a day on which banks in the United Kingdom are generally open for business, other than weekends and local bank holidays (“Business Day”) and in accordance with the cut off times advised by the Bank on the Website or in any Bankline material. The Customer may, in some situations, use Bankline to give the Bank an instruction to make a sterling payment within the UK outside of normal business hours. Where these instructions can be accepted, the payee’s bank will be credited with these funds on the same day.
- 3.5. The Customer must ensure all Instructions contain the correct account number or International Bank Account Number (“IBAN”) as required by the Bank. The omission of a required number or IBAN, or inclusion of an incorrect number or IBAN, may result in delay or loss and the Bank is entitled to charge for the recovery of funds where the required number or IBAN is omitted or an incorrect number or IBAN is contained in the Instruction. The Bank is not responsible for checking the beneficiary name or other account details. The Bank will not be liable for acting on an Instruction if it is ambiguous, incomplete or inaccurate. If the Bank refuses to make a payment, unless there is a security or other legal reason not to, the Bank will notify the Customer on the Website or through the Customer’s Relationship Manager and, if possible, give the Bank’s reasons for doing so.
- 3.6. Any confirmation that a payment should reach the beneficiary’s bank by a certain date is no guarantee that the funds will be available to the beneficiary by that date.

- 3.7. If the Customer provides Instructions to the Bank or requests services in relation to any account held with another bank (including any other NatWest Group Member) (an “External Bank”) for use within Bankline, the Bank will not be liable to the Customer for any loss, damage, delay or failure to perform caused by the acts or omissions of any such External Bank. Where Bankline delivers to the Customer any information supplied to the Bank by an External Bank, the Bank makes no warranty as to the accuracy or sufficiency of the information provided by that External Bank.
- 3.8. The Customer shall ensure that all External Bank authorisations are in place before using or accessing any account held with any External Bank. The Customer will need to liaise directly with the relevant External Bank for that purpose.
- 3.9. The Bank shall not be responsible for ensuring any pro forma documentation or other materials are supplied by the Bank relating to an External Bank or if supplied, are accurate, sufficient or fit for such purpose. The Bank may, but shall not be obliged to, notify the Customer from time to time of any changes in any External Bank authorisations or requirements of such External Banks of which it becomes aware.
- 3.10. The Customer shall ensure that all appropriate consents, approvals or authorisations are in place from any entity whose accounts the Customer wishes to include on the Bankline service or access, view or issue Instructions on prior to and at all times during any such access or use.

4. Security

- 4.1. Reduced security risks for Bankline are achieved through the use of browser-based encryption and various security measures described in Bankline material and on the Website. The Bank will use all reasonable endeavours to keep Bankline secure.
- 4.2. The Bank will monitor computer security threats and take appropriate action, exercising the care reasonably expected of a bank providing similar services.
- 4.3. The Customer will tell the Bank immediately if the Customer:
 - 4.3.1. Suspects or believes that:
 - Any Security Device or Security Details are lost, misused or stolen.
 - Any Security Details may be known to a person other than an Administrator or relevant User.
 - There has been any unauthorised use of Bankline.
 - Bankline security measures may no longer be adequate.
 - 4.3.2. Wishes to change an Administrator.
 - 4.3.3. Knows or suspects there has been a failure or delay in the Bank receiving any Instruction or knows or suspects a programming or transmission error, defect or corruption in any Instruction. The Customer will assist the Bank to remedy the problem.
 - 4.3.4. Discovers that any information on the Website is incorrect.
- 4.4. If the Customer tells the Bank that there has been a breach of security, the Bank will promptly cancel the Security Details and any Security Devices as necessary.
- 4.5. If information accessed or received through Bankline is not intended for the Customer, the Customer will:
 - 4.5.1. Immediately notify the Bank.
 - 4.5.2. Not access the information further and immediately delete it.
 - 4.5.3. Keep the information confidential.

5. Intellectual Property

- 5.1. Bankline, the Website, all software owned or licensed by the Bank and Bankline material are the property of the Bank and its suppliers and are protected by copyright and other intellectual property rights. The Bank grants the Customer a non-transferable licence to use Bankline for the duration of the Bankline Agreement.
- 5.2. The Customer will use the equipment and materials supplied by the Bank solely for the purposes of operating Bankline.

6. Confidentiality

- 6.1. The Bank will take reasonable care to maintain the confidentiality of information relating to the Customer. The Customer authorises the Bank to provide third parties with information the Bank believes is necessary, where it engages a third party (“Third Party Supplier”) in connection with Bankline, or to carry out an Instruction.
- 6.2. To carry out an Instruction, the Bank may be required to transfer personal information to third parties. This may mean personal information is transferred to countries which do not provide the same level of protection for personal information as the UK. By giving an Instruction, the Customer agrees to this and confirms the Customer is authorised to instruct the Bank to transfer personal information relating to others. Information transferred to third parties may subsequently be accessed and used by law enforcement agencies and other authorities to prevent and detect crime and comply with legal obligations.

7. Exclusions, Liability and Reimbursement

- 7.1. The Bank shall have no liability for, and may delay or refuse to process or proceed with processing any payment if (i) in its reasonable opinion it is prudent to do so in the interests of crime prevention or compliance with laws including sanctions laws or regulations, or (ii) such delay or refusal is a consequence of checks carried out as part of the proper operation of the Bank’s payment processing systems.
- 7.2. The Bank is not liable for any loss arising from a cause beyond the Bank’s control or arising from any delay or failure to carry out an instruction, unless caused by the Bank’s negligence or wilful default.
- 7.3. The Bank is not liable for any indirect or consequential loss, including:
 - 7.3.1. The Bank is not liable for loss or corruption of data, injury to reputation, business interruption, loss of revenue, goodwill, opportunity or anticipated savings.
- 7.4. The Bank does not guarantee that the software used in provision of the service is error free and is not liable for any disruptions to Bankline.
- 7.5. The Bank is not liable for any:
 - 7.5.1. Errors, failures or costs arising from any malfunction of the Customer’s equipment or provision of services from the Customer’s Internet service provider.
 - 7.5.2. Security-related information or advice provided by the Bank.
- 7.6. This clause is subject to clause 7.12 and 7.13 below. The Bank is responsible for executing payments sent from and received to the Account correctly. If a payment is unauthorised the Bank will refund the payment immediately. If the Bank incorrectly executes a payment, it will refund the payment, interest and charges and/or pay any interest which the Customer should have received as soon as reasonably practicable. In the case of a Protected Customer the correction will be made immediately.
- 7.7. If the Customer is not a Protected Customer, the Bank’s records as to the authentication, evidence, consent received from a Customer and technical operability will, in the absence of obvious error, be conclusive evidence.
- 7.8. The Customer will be entitled to a refund in respect of an unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment only if the Customer notifies the Bank in writing without undue delay and no later than 13 months after the payment was debited. Where the Customer authorised a payment initiated by or through a payee (such as a Direct Debit), the following conditions must also be satisfied:
 - 7.8.1. The authorisation did not specify the exact payment amount;
 - 7.8.2. The amount debited exceeded the amount the Customer had reasonably expected would be taken; and
 - 7.8.3. The request for a refund is made within eight weeks from the date the payment is debited from the Customer’s Account.

If the payment is in sterling or euro and by direct debit, the Customer may have further rights under the UK and Single Euro Payments Area (“SEPA”) Direct Debit schemes.
- 7.9. The Customer must comply with any security measures required by the Bank and take all other reasonable steps to prevent their Security Details or Security Device from becoming known to or accessible by any unauthorised person.
- 7.10. The Customer is not liable for any losses from the use of Security Details or Security Devices arising before they come into the possession of the Customer or after the Customer has notified the Bank that they have been lost or stolen.
- 7.11. The Customer shall promptly notify the Bank in writing if it becomes a larger business or charity such that it ceases to be a Protected Customer. If a Customer is a Protected Customer when this Agreement is entered into but ceases to be so afterwards, the Customer agrees that the provisions in this clause 7 which apply to Protected Customers shall not apply from such date

Important notice

7.12. This clause 7.12 applies to Customers which are not Protected Customers. To the extent permitted, the Payment Service Regulations 2017 apply only to the extent provided below.

(c) Where they have been used to make a payment for goods or services (except for financial services contracts) where the user of the card or security details does not need to be present, for example over the telephone or internet, provided that the Protected Customer notifies the Bank of such unauthorised use without undue delay on becoming aware of the misuse.

7.14. If a Customer becomes a smaller business such that it becomes a Microenterprise or small charity on a date after this Agreement has been entered into then the provisions in this Agreement which apply to Protected Customers shall apply to the Customer from that date.

Incorrect or late payments

7.15. Where the Customer has given the Bank incorrect payment details, the Bank will, at the Customer's request, make reasonable efforts to recover the payment and notify the Customer of the result. The Bank may not be able to recover the payment and may charge the Customer a fee for trying to recover it. If the Bank is unable to recover the payment, the Bank will not refund the Customer. If the payment has been received by the payee's bank the Customer should contact the payee's Bank for a refund. The Bank will on written request provide the Customer with relevant information regarding the payment to help the Customer recover it.

7.17. If the Bank makes or credits a payment late, then the Bank will put the Account back in the position it would have been had the Bank not made the error. The Customer can also ask the Bank to contact the other bank and ask them to correct the amount of interest on their customer's account.

Reimbursement for third party accounts and third party claims

7.18. The Customer will reimburse the Bank against any claims, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages or losses that the Bank incurs from Customer Instructions affecting a third party's Account(s) or any third party claim arising out of or relating to the Customer's use or failure to use Bankline.
